SO, WHAT ABOUT OUR RACCOON?

Four baby raccoons, referred to as kits, grew up on the factory grounds. The Once Again Family adopted them, and one of them was lovingly named Rocky. Our kits were very friendly and adored our office. So...in turn, we adopted them and created our company logo in their honor. Our raccoon has become a symbol of our wholesome nature, our closeness and responsibility to the earth and the nature of our product.

Once Again Nut Butter: Home of all things organic, vegan & natural nut butter.
